CABINET CONFERENCE

Our Relation to Foreign Countries Fully Discussed.

NO DEFINITE ACTION TAKEN.

No Answer From Spain.

Washington, March 28.—The cabine westing yesterday lasted but two hours, everybody being present but Segretary Carliale, who is th New York. The session is said to have been uneventful, sion is said to have been unoventful, thereby disappointing the expectations of those who looked for some decided aggressive action in foreign affairs. It is also said that there was an entire absence of friction between the member, although the principal subjects under discussion, relating to the various complications into which we have become involved with certain foreign countries, were well calculated to exhibit divergence of individual views. It is presumed that the attitude of Great Britain toward Venezuela and Nicaragna was canvassed, but as far as can be gathered the secretary of state had no new matter touching this to impart, and it was not believed to be necessary to take any positive action in the absence of an explicit statement of the purposes of Great Britain.

purposes of Great Britain.

As far as the Nicaragnan matter is concerned, it is not believed that our government is disposed to take issue with Great Britain as to her right to deready and repeatedly gone on record as insisting on its own right in such cases to seem reparation for improper treat-

The only point upon which there can be a question is as to the method of colthe only point upon which there only be a question is as to the method of collecting the indemnity, but there is reason to believe that in the view of the cabinet, the subject need cause no real trouble, as Nieuragna doubtless will agree to meet reasonable demands from Grout Britain when it is made clear to her by our department of state that she can not do otherwise than rely upon the moral support of the United States, which might otherwise be disposed to use its good offices to secure an abstraint of the amount of indemnity if the principle of an indemnity is conceded. The situation as to Venezuela is believed to be giving the cabinet more concern by far, but us a treaty stated, it is the disposition to take no arbitrary action in the absence of a statement from Great Britain.

In view of the more weightier matters now engaging the attention of the continity received.

In view of the more weightier matters now engaging the attention of the administration, it is stated that foreign ministers in Washington are likely to be at least for the present, left undisturbed in their relations with our government. No answer beyond a purely perfunctory one, acknowledging the receipt of our communication and promising to make investigation, has been returned to Spain to our demand in the Alliagea affair, and while under ordinary conditions, this might be resented by our government, a disposition was shown by the cabinet to make all due allowance for the fact that as a result of the overturning of the Spanish cabinet, the subordinates there dure not do

The Sacredness of Joy.

Real joy is as sacred and divine hing as there is. You know that it s true that we may, if we choose, begin to enter on our inheritance of eternal things now, here, in this life. Especially is this the case with this divine gift of the gladness of the soul. Do not rest content with any mere small, finite temporal thing, and call that joy; it is some mere passing earthly elevation of spirits. That is not connected with any feeling of regret for our imperfection, true joy must ever be. It is the de-light that comes from consciousness of the nearness of God, consciousness of love to Him, consciousness of liv-it g for the good of our brothers and sisters of the human family .-- William McDonald Sinclair.

It was rumored here last night that several changes would soon be made in some of the important offices of the L. E. & W.

General Yardmaster J. Hurst, at Mrs. T. S. Garretson and son Ralph returned to their home to-day in Rochester, New York.

General Yardmaster J. Harse, at Tipton has resigned and it is thought that he will be appointed superintendent of the I. & M. O. division and that J. D. Dennison, who is now and the properties the properties of the properties of John Kernell Coming.

The principal character in "Mc-Fadden's Elopement," is 9Adam Mc-Fadden," who is personated by John Kernell, of the wondrous dialect, the Day operator John Thatcher, of Kernell, of the wondrous dialect, the imposing aspect and the twest voice. McFadden figures successfully as a lightning-rod man, an installment house collector, a tombstone dealer, a pretended English lord at a plunger into matrimony. The piece is played by a surprisingly strong company and is crowded with specialties. The attraction will be seen here Tuesday.
